Lunch at your leisure

There are a few restaurants close to the Louvre where you will be able to enjoy a typical lunch.

Visit of Montmartre

Take the hop on and hop off bus at the same stop where you got to Notre-Dame. Take the Blue line, but going in the opposite direction: you will now make your way back to the Opera (where you started). Change for the Yellow line at Station Opera (number 2 on the Blue Line). You are going to take the Yellow Line to go to station 52 : Montmartre. The total ride will take about 45 minutes

Once in Montmartre, go up the hill. You can take the little 'funiculaire' train to go up the hill. Once at the top of Montmartre, enjoy the incredible view of Paris. Stop at the Sacre-Cœur, and go to the little village where the Moulin de la Galette still stands.

Take the yellow line stop 52 to get back to your hotel.

Half-Day Tour of Cote de Nuits Vineyards

Accompanied by your expert guide (sommelier, wine collector, producer), journey along scenic roads through the famous Côte de Nuits vineyards and quaint, winemaking villages on this 4.5-hour tour. Enjoy a tasting of great Burgundy wines in a traditional cellar. Have a selection of wines paired with a savory choux “gougère” pastry, a traditional Burgundy appetizer.

Take a stroll through the vineyards, winemaking villages, medieval houses, churches and castles. Visit the Château du Clos de Vougeot, on the trail of the Cistercians monks. Explore the winemaking facilities built between the 12th and 16th century including the vat rooms, presses and the monk’s cellar. Head through the ancient forests and picturesque countryside of the Hautes Côtes de Nuits. Discover the 18th century Burgundy canal in the heart of the Ouche Valley.

DAY 4

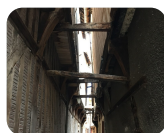

Half-Day wine and Cheese Tour of Burgundy

Indulge your senses on a half-day food and wine tour of Burgundy from Dijon, and sample some of the local wines, cheeses, and more.

You will be in the hands of an expert sommelier, wine collector and producer, traveling along scenic roads that take you past the vineyards and rural villages of the Grand Cru wine route. See the vineyards of famous appellations, such as Romanée Conti, Clos de Vougeot, Chambertin, and Montrachet, passing abbeys, castles, and Roman churches along the way.

Learn the history of wine production in the area, as well as the wine making techniques of today, from pruning the vines, to ageing the wine in oak barrels, and the secrets of the terroir (soil). Stop to taste 4-7 wines in each cellar you visit, including Pinot Noirs and white wines.

Your sommelier will teach you how to pair Burgundy wines with local cheeses and chocolates, and provide other food and wine suggestions. You will also visit the wine village of Gevrey-Chambertin in the Côte de Nuits. Noted for its Grand Cru wine production, Gevrey-Chambertin is often referred to as the “King of Burgundy Wines.”

DAY 6

Half-Day Guided day tour of Monaco, Eze

Enjoy a half-day adventure in the glamorous French Riviera on a visit to the medieval hillside village of Eze and a guided tour of Monaco and Monte Carlo. Departing from Cannes, Nice, or Monaco, you will travel by luxury 8-seater minibus and explore the glitzy atmosphere of this trendy destination.

At the enchanting hillside village of Eze you will be rewarded with panoramic views of the French Riviera and Mediterranean Sea. You will also get the chance to visit the Fragonard perfume factory before driving through the village La Turbie. Also known as the "Terrace" of Monaco, due to the panoramic views of the Principality of Monaco, it is most notable for its Roman monument dating from 7 BC.

On arrival in Monaco, go to the old town, known as "The Rock," and admire the Prince Palace. You will arrive in time to see the Changing of the Guard just before Midday. Continue to the Cathedral, where you can pay homage to the Princes and Princesses of Monaco who are buried there and still have time to see the Oceanographic Museum and the Justice Palace.

End your thrilling tour at Monte Carlo, where you will see the Casino built by Garnier, the architect of the Opera Garnier in Paris. Look out too for the famous Hotel de Paris built in 1864, and the beautiful gardens. But for many, the highlight of the tour will be when your driver takes you for a spin around the road circuit of the Monaco Grand Prix.

Overnight at your hotel in Nice.
