DAY 1

Morning

You'll leave Paris early in the morning between 8.00 am – 9.00 am after having been picked up at your hotel in Paris, or at CDG, of you prefer. After 1.5 hour driving, you'll reach the Burgundy region and start you trip by visiting the charming and Unesco world heritage village of Vezelay. Named the “eternal hill” in the medieval times, it boast an impressive gothic basilica dedicated to Sainte Mary Madeleine which you will visit with your private guide.

The Burgundy bucolic countryside will be in display as you drive to the medieval castle of Bazoches, built in the 12th century. This imposing castle hosted Kings Philippe Auguste and Richard the Lionheart on their way to the third crusade.

You'll then be discovering Beaune, the heart of Burgundy's unique wine region. First, we'll check in at the boutique Hotel de la Poste or the Château de Gilly

Free time for lunch. Your guide will give some advice for finding a nice place to lunch or have a simple snack.

Afternoon

You'll spend the whole afternoon in Beaune visiting the nice medieval small city, the famous Hospices jewel of Burgundy founded in 1443. It's a masterpiece of French-Flemish art and medieval architecture. You'll go afterwards to the Wine Museum, home of the Dukes of Burgundy with a famous collection of tapestries of Aubusson.

At the end of this stunning day, you'll visit Bouchard & Sons a famous winery for an interactive discovery of the famous wines of Burgundy. Visit including wine tasting.

Overnight and dinner (included) at the hotel.

DAY 2

Morning

Depart from the hotel around 9.00 am to drive la route des vins from Beaune to Dijon.

This day is entirely dedicated to discovering the most famous grape varieties and wine cellars.

You'll start with the village of Nuits St Georges where you will visit the cellar from the family Dufouleur, then Clos Vougeot and its famous castle from the 12th century, Gevrey Chambertin and the castle winery of Marsannay.

Afternoon

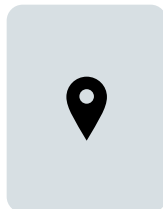

Your afternoon tour includes guided visits and wine tastings in all these sites where you will meet the wine producers explaining their passion.

After this day in the vineyards and the wineries of, arguably, the world's premiere wine region, you'll be driven back to Paris, reaching it around 8.00 pm.
