Afternoon at Leisure

Take the hop on and hop off bus from Notre -Dame (it's on the blue line) and you can go and explore some of Paris' most charming neighborhoods.

Option 1: Spend the afternoon at the Latin Quarter, visiting the Odeon, the small street cour du Commerce, the Pantheon and the Luxembourg Gardens. You'll also have time to visit the Rodin Museum, or the Musee d'Orsay. Take the orange line and stop at stop number 31

Option 2: You can go to Le Marais and visit the Place des Vosges, the Musee Carnavalet. This is less than a mile away from Notre-Dame, so you can easily walk there

Option 3: You can also choose to visit Montmartre, the small village inside the city that is Paris, and you can enjoy the views of the city from the Place du Tertre. Do stop at the Sacre-Coeur. For this you will need to take the Hop on and hop off bus and go to stop 52 on the yellow line.

Once in Montmartre, go up the hill. You can take the little 'funiculaire' train to go up the hill. Once at the top of Montmartre, enjoy the incredible view of Paris. Stop at the Sacre-Cœur, and go to the little village where the Moulin de la Galette still stands.

Option 4: Go shopping at the big department stores on the Boulevard Haussman (right behind the Opera). Our favorite is the Galeries Lafayette. Do not miss going to the terrass for yet another impressive view of Paris.

DAY 3

Versailles Full-Day tour

After breakfast at your hotel, you will start your day with a full-day visit of Versailles palace and its splendid gardens. Beat the crowds at the entrance and enjoy sharing your guide with only a handful of more people.

This is the way to see Versailles, especially now that it has been restored to its previous splendor, dazzling you with fascinating details of the royal court that ruled France in the 18th Century. Learn about the palace's history, and explore its unique interior rooms, including the King's and the Queen's State Apartments and the Royal Chapel.

You'll then have free time to discover the gardens, the results of an engineering feat and the genius of Le Notre's design and vision. Please note that in the summer, fountain shows are on display. Tickets for the Fountain shows are sold in Versailles only and will not be included as part of the package.

Return to your hotel at 6 PM.

Overnight at the hotel.
